JENNIFER CROMARTY

MODERN RENAISSANCE

artist statement

MODERN RENAISSANCE is both an homage to my love of classical art and my interest in portraiture and life drawing. Through making art, I have learnt about myself and how my emotions impact on my work. Seeing a work come to life can be both meditative and euphoric. The emotions people have felt experiencing my work is inspiring me to build on my practice for the rest of my life.

artist biography

Currently experimenting with pan pastel, oil pastel & oil sticks, Jennifer Cromarty is a self-taught, emerging artist based in rural Victoria. Her overwhelming interest is with the human form being a long-time life drawing practitioner. With a focus on portraits and figurative art, she's interested in capturing human emotion and energy.
